Monday, October 16, the second in the series ofsassism on Russian and the West) Lectures willbbe given. Vladimir Nabokov, associate professor of Russian literature at Cornell University will discuss Pushkin's Place in European Literature."

Mr. Nabokov was born in St Petersburg, Russia. In 1919 he left Russia after the Bolshevik revolution. After graduating from Cambridge University in England he lived in Germany and then France, until 1940, when he came to the United States. He taought at Stanford University during the summer of 1941 and at Wellesley College from 1941 until 1948. Now he is teaching Russian Literature and European Fiction at Cornell University. Furthermore, from 1942 to 1948 Mr. Nabokov was associated with the Museum of Comparative Zoology at Harvard as Research Fellow in Entomology.

Between 1925 and 1940 Mr Nabokov has published in Russian-eight novels, two collections of poems and two collections of short stories. All these were banned in Soviet Russia. Most of the fiction was translated into one or several European languages. After he came to the United States he wrote and published in English two novels, a ss book of short stories, all of which had previously appeared in leading magazines; a critical biography of Gogol; and a collection of verse translations from the Russian. A new books is now being prepared by Mr. Nabokov. Several chapters of it have saves appeared in the New Yorker.

After Mr. E Nabokov's lecture Monday evening there will be a reception for him in Davis student Center to which both students and faculty members are invited. The lecture will take place in Sage Hall at 8 pm.

########

Ar. Maboury was porn in St Notareburg. Audale. In 1912 he eart musels after the Bolehevik fevolution. After graduating from brolners to transer of the United States. Se tagget at Stanford Figilian at dornell University. Forthermore, from 1982 to 1968 Mr.

To facil stories tolvor at beaned eres and file estrois Jose to amood wen A . maineus out more anottelement seven to notteellee & oven il to amergate fereves, verodel . The ve berngere ented who are at somic each fifty protect and thatfront one answer offwork box

If the erody salouve values account a royal a royal a . Sharpes assured leaves to see out thetelement new mordelt and

. You Comotted of wolfest Household on the world or

.Tolltol woll sell of her sook hears.

ANT B TE TIEN SEER

The Christian Association is sponsoring a series of lectures followed by extended discussion periods for this acedemic year.

Three lectures will be given each semester.

at a:30 rm in the Browsing Room. The topic announced is CHRISTIAN AND CLASSICAL CONCEPTS OF HISTORY.

rofessor Leona Gabel of the history department, who has taught menaissance and meformation history, will take the christian aspect beginning with the early Christian thinkers, such as augustine and Aquinas. In her discussion she will trace their concepts through the meformation. She may deal with their influence on present day thinking also.

the classical side of the topic in the same manner. The speakers together will endeavour to show how the classical and Christian movements, though seperate in themselves, cross and recross throughout history.

The second discussion, on Novemetor 14, concerns SEX BEFORE MARRIAGE. The speaker announced for this lecture will be the weel-knwon profesor of philosophy Peter A Bertocci who is now on the faculty of Boston University.

Paul Lehman of the Princeton Theological School is the speaker announced for December fourth. The definite topic for this discussion has not yet been announced, but it will concern itself with the basic problems of Protestantism as related to the man of today.

The purpose of these lectures and discussion groups will the state of many and a detail to the total total and to the total and the state of the state of

•

be to help us solve many of our questions and problems concerning Christianity and its relevency to the various aspects of the world around us.

The lectures and discussion groups are free and open to the public. Consult your bulletin for the exact time and place of each lecture in this Christian Association series.

XXX

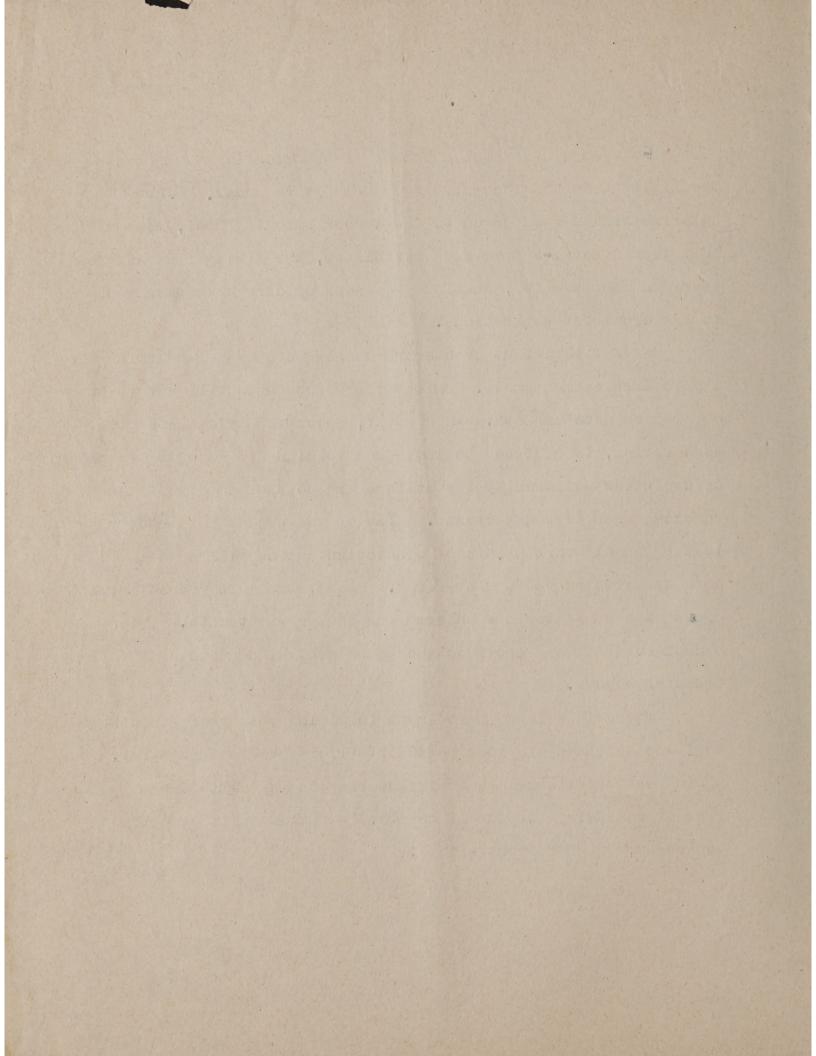

SMITH COLLEGE NORTHAMPTON, MASSACHUSETTS

NEWS OFFICE Tel: 2700 Ext. 434 Four popular spots in the Physical Edication Departments facilities have had face liftings during the summer. A new chlorinator has been added to the indoor swimming pool, nine of the logay tennis courtes have been refinished, the riding rink has been regraded and levelled, and four new sets of oars have been added to the crew boat collections.

Several important events are on the october calender for the physical education group. Smith foreign students will cavort at a party on october 24th. This event, spons dred by the Athletic Association, is designed to introduce foreign students to the program of athletics offered by the college and to the members of the physical education department. Also on the docket for october is the Annual Sport clinic of connecticut which will be held here at Smith on the twenty-first. Also, the male faculty will oppose the students in a soccer game on the eighteenth. This annual event always provides much amusement along with an excellent brand of soccer.

There is a large enrollment in riding this year and many feminine Lone mangers took to their Silvers over Mountain Day.

Riding enthusiasts held a breakfast ride on the eighth and a luncheon ride is scheduled for the fifteenth. A gymkana will be held on Wednesday, October twenty-fifth.

The executive Committee of the United world rederalists hase met during the past two weeks and has formudated the plans members of the committe are /he/committe//whose/hembers/are isabel for this year's program. Baxter, 51, Anita Meyers, 52, Anne Sutton and Anne Wood, also 52, mary buff, .53, Lydia moffat, .53, and Judith miller, .53, These girls have adopted a policy focused on the netd for an active and wellinformed membership which will be capable of conveying the ideas of world government to the campus and town via speeches, publications in college and town newspapers, and programs on wosk. Through weekly study groups with a background of assigned reading and a speaker's training program, the members will be able to speak in the schools in and around worthampton on the purpose and policies of UWF and their relation to current world problems. In all of this work the Federalists hope to co-operate with the faculty and townspeople to the fullest possible extent.

The Federalists will also help celebrate UN day and will have literature on that subject for distribution. The two winners of a high school poster contest sponsored by the chapter will attend the Harvard Institute for high school students. Taking advantage of the new college policy of free night for official conferences, two Smith representatives attended the National convention of UNE in Washington, D.C? this week. Other representatives plan to attend a meeting in Boston on October 28.

of raising money for the Student voluteer Fund. The object of this fund is to furnish finances for students who have given up a year of their time to work for UWF. Joan Clark, 1952, former president of the Smith chapter is devoting a year to student field work in New York before she returns to finish college.

Miss Dee Frazier, another full time field worker who ismalso chairman of the student chapters of the United World Federalists, will be invited to participate. The chapter is particularly interested in meeting with freshmen who have done work in the past for the World Federalists elsewhere or who have a desire to know more about its functions and policies here at Smith.

Any student interested in World Federalism on the Smith campus is urged to contact Lydia Moffat for further information.

XXX

The Four College Genetics Conference will meet on Thursday,

October 19 at 8 00 PM in Hooker Auditorium of Clapp Laboratory of an Mount Holyoke College. The speaker will be Dr. W. Jacobson of Strangeways Laboratory, Cambridge, England. Sis His subject will be "The Role of Folic Acid and of Nucleoproteins During Cell Division. Anyone who wishes transportation or who has extra room in his car for passengers should contact Mrs Overstreet in Burton 7A.

#####

The Department of Physical Education is holding a pertsports clinic for teachers of physical education in the secondary schools of Connecticut. This will take place on October 20, 21 and 22.

Anyone who is interested in observing any of the sessions is invited to come. The schedule is basketball 9 30 AM, dance 10 45 A M, hockey 2 30 PM and swimming 4 30 PM.